All of our winners received a congratulatory letter from Pop Warner, a certificate of achievement, and an invitation to participate in the awards ceremonies held this year at Disney's Coronado Resort.

Each year Pop Warner Little Scholars recognizes our participants with the highest academic rankings, starting at the association level. At the 8th grade and above level, 1st-team All Americans are eligible to apply for scholarships, which this year totaled over $52,000!

Some of these scholars were able to enjoy the morning ceremony at Disney, where they were announced individually, walking across the stage, shaking hands with national Pop Warner officials, and having their individual photos "SUPERSIZED" on a giant screen! Speakers were Sheila Noone, Editorial Director of American Cheerleader; Tommy Barnhardt, former Bucs punter, and Cedric Jones, NFL Youth Director and former New England Patriots Wide Receiver. Many great door prizes were given, with our own Joe Joe Bonura scoring a football autographed by many Hall-of-Famers!

The Executive Board is working to grow this program locally and further reward and encourage our very deserving scholar-athletes – more details to follow!

All-American applications will be distributed in August to eligible candidates. You can read more about the All-American Selection Process at www.popwarner.com/scholastics/allamericanprogram.

Again, congratulations; your diligence is noted and respected. We salute you!
